

Using SKYPE in the Classroom

Dr. Sheila Offman Gersh
City College of New York
Center for School Development
School of Education
sgersh@ccny.cuny.edu

What is Skype?

- A free tool to make telephone calls over the Internet
- Free software can be downloaded at <http://www.skype.com>
- Offers video conferencing capability

Uses of SKYPE

- Conducting an online meeting
 - 100 participants can attend
- Providing Professional Development
 - Provide sessions to teachers new to skype
- Engaging students in dialogues with students in other places
 - Students in NY and New Delhi, India skyped to discuss their CultureQuest project

How SKYPE is used in the CultureQuest Project

- <http://www.culturequest.us>
- Students share information about their culture
- Students discuss their projects with others
- Students present their projects to another audience

Let's Try a Connection

- NY
- India
- Israel
- Sweden
- Austria
- Pennsylvania